

No Replacing You

Pink Sweat$

Smoke in my lungs
I've got liquor on my breath
I know it ain't fair girl
When you need me I ain't there, no I ain't there

But when I'm at my lowest, who I run to?
Don't matter the problem it's always you
Give me no reason to question you
Give me no reason to question you

So when I'm in the hills (when I'm in the hills)
Make sure I enjoy that view
When I'm counting dollar bills
You know know I'mma always split it with you
And I know that if I fall (fall), you gon' jump in too
Girl just know that if you go, ain't no replacing, ain't no replacing you

You say that I'm selfish, get it all off your chest
If we're being honest, without you I'm a mess
Cuz when I'm at my lowest, oh I run too
Don't matter the problem it's always you
Give me no reason to question you
Give me no reason to question you

So when I'm in the hills, make sure I enjoy that view
When I'm counting dollar bills
You know know I'mma always split it with you
And I know that if I fall, you gon' jump in too
Girl just know that if you go, ain't no replacing, ain't no replacing you
Ain't no replacing, ain't no replacing you
Ain't no replacing, ain't no replacing you
Ooh...
