

I carried all this weight on my own
[?] on my own

I need a ride, can you take me somewhere to scream
Somewhere alive, somewhere nobody could find me
It's in my mind, eating me alive
It's all the time, it's all the time

The cage is closing in on me
Take me, I'm ready to be free
To feel, to feel... to feel alive!
To feel alive!

My solitude is the temple I come to pray
I close my eyes and let it wash away
That feeling that there's not enough
You're all I hear, become divine
If you never want you'll always have
Reincarnated, here I am
Everywhere and in everything
I feel alive!

I feel alive!
I feel!
I feel alive!

It wasn't my burden to bear alone
It wasn't my burden to bear, I know
It wasn't my burden to bear alone
And I carried it all the way home

It wasn't my burden to bear alone (I carried all)
It wasn't my burden to bear, I know (This weight)
It wasn't my burden to bear alone (On my own)
And I carried it all the way-

I feel alive!
I feel alive!
I feel!
