

Cinderella

Pinkshift

I can't sleep anymore
I stay up watching your shadows
They're dancing my walls
Just close my eyes
Hush baby, don't you cry
My arms wide open to something more

I'll set fire to my mind and let you free
Suffocate my fear and I'll just disappear

Your words, they flow
In and out through my ears
And I don't want to hear what you've been saying, no
Hushed tones, just speak
Do you adore me
You've been starving just to hear me tell you, I'm all yours

I'll set fire to my mind and let you free
Suffocate my fear and I'll just disappear
Let the fire seep beneath my skin
So I'll never feel anything again

Want to take it away
And to savor the taste
Of my sweet memory
And to burn all that's left

I'll set fire to my mind and let you free
Suffocate my fear inside, you're drowning me
Let my ashes fall so I won't ever feel anything again

Anything again
Again
