

Freefall

Pinkshift

Easily distracted and insecure
I'm feeling tragic and hopelessly unsure
There's a fork in this road
And I don't know which way
Yeah, I don't know where to

Go from here
Oh, it's all unclear
'Cause everyone's got it great
They all know something I don't
Yeah, ain't that sweet

So fake a smile and say what you want from me
If empathy is what's working, we can share our demons
Are these my feelings, or are they yours?
This therapy is a two-way door
I'm feeling anxious, don't know which way to-
I'll end it all, I just don't know where to

Go from here
Oh, it's all unclear
'Cause everyone's got it great
Yeah, they all know something
I don't know where to go from here

Oh, 'cause life's unfair
Oh, I wish I cared
'Cause everyone's got it great
Yeah, they all know something
I don't know where to Know where to-
