

Pray to a gremlin power box
You're taking a beat, while you scour the slots
The conventional oven's easy
So pull on the plug while you're bored, and you're cleanly

Licking the edge of a cupcake
You point to my neck and then point to your plate
Now normally I'd be heated
But this time it seems like you need it

Need me, need me, need me, need me...

Pouring my sludge down the sink drain
Sweeping the crumbs, of the graceful and grain
While you arranged your hands in to an eagle
And left the outline on the thigh of my jeans

Neatly, neatly, neatly, neatly...

Uh-huh... you're...
Uh-huh... you're...
Needy, needy, needy, needy...
