

On Thin Ice

Pinkshift

She watches closely
For every move you make
And every breath you take
And every bone you break
Who's coming closer?
I see flashing lights
Coming to take your life
From you and

Know what they're coming here for Stop playing hide-and seek
Don't think that they can't find you
Be careful when you sleep

I'm quite confused
Cause you have staring eyes
They poke and prod and pry
But they can't see in front of you
Give up the ruse
I don't know who you are
You're foaming at the mouth
You think it scares me off but
Oh honey, I've seen worse on you
That slope is pretty steep
You think that they all hate you but
I think you need to sleep

You're on a fuse
It's like your face can't handle it
You're turning red again
They think you're gonna blow
They'll be here soon
With their pitchforks flaming
Question your own fame and they'll try to
To tell you what to do

Start hiding all your skeletons
I think they're closing in
Don't know how long you'll be here
'Cause this ice is pretty thin
I'm quite confused
Because you're turning blue again
No one can save you here
I think you need to go
Oh please stay tuned
I think our hero's fading
Playing his old games again
You know we'll be back soon
This party's coming down for you
Who would've thought it'd been
We're crashing any time now
This ice is pretty thin
