

ONE NATION

Pinkshift

Hey big man
That propaganda slips so easily for you
Through those thin lips
You think that you can fuck with what we know is true

Money-hung manipulation
I hope you know that we all see right through you

I'm done waiting
For the day that you'll respect my right to choose
It's my life, yeah
And I don't care about the cash you have to lose

You're complacent
The smoke won't hurt you 'til it chokes your body blue
Hey racist
What doesn't kill me, it'll make you suffer too

You failed another generation
To line your pockets but it won't protect you

One nation
This kingdom's rotting at its roots
Our generation
We don't believe in you
(We don't believe in)
We don't believe in you
(We don't believe in)

Kill a colonizer, yeah, I'll call you what you are Stolen homes and screaming children
Liberty is not for all, huh?
Wise guy, but you profit off of war
Livin' for the monarchy 'cause corporations own you all, yeah

And now they're gunning for a war
We don't believe in
Yeah, they profit off of war

Demonize somebody's children
Black and brown 'cause that's what's easy for ya
And now you're telling us it's different
You're for equality now
Which one is it, big man?
That propaganda slips so easily for you

One nation
This kingdom's rotting at its roots
Our generation
We don't believe in you

You're complacent
You can't keep running from the truth
Our generation
We don't believe in you

Because you're gunning for a war

We don't believe in
Yeah, they're gunning for a war
We don't believe in you
