

Patience

Pinkshift

What are you late for?
Well, I'm late for once
It takes me forever
I'll never be done
Need to have patience
Supposed to have patience
Is that what I'm craving?
Is that what I came here for?

I've been here before
Before, I've been here before

In line for the grieving
Oh, you're grieving too?
Can't stop having dreams
Someone that I knew
Supposed to have patience
We'll live here forever
Is that what I'm craving?
Is that what I came here for?

I've been here before
Before, I've been here before
And as long as you need me to
I'll stay here forever with you

'Cause I've lost too much to begin
Oh, it all just feels like the end
Do you know I'm with you?
Can you still forgive my mistakes?
Fill the room with your color again?
Do you know I'm with you
Forever and always

Heads in the clouds these days, I dream in hues
Been trying to find what I'm looking for

I've been here before
Before, I've been here before
And as long as you need me to
I'll stay here forever with you
