

I've Still Got You (Ice Cream)

Pissed Jeans

I've still got you, ice cream
'Cause sometimes life is less than a dream
And all my other friends turn away
I need to be with something I can relate
Just a taste and all my troubles fall behind
Sweet bowl of sugar is there to ease my mind
I shouldn't need it
But sometimes I want it
I gotta have it
With cream on it
I've still got you ice cream
Belly getting bigger or so it would seem
Hand feels empty when it's not holding a spoon
Dessert for me can never come too soon
I shouldn't need it
Sometimes I want it
I gotta have it
With cookies on it
I've still got you ice cream
Cause sometimes my life is less than a dream
Just a taste and all my troubles fall behind
Sweet bowl of sugar, ease my mind
I've still got you
I've still got you
I've still got you
I've still got you, chocolate
