

When I Was His Wife

Pistol Annies

He'd never cheat, he'd never lie
He'll love me forever 'til the day that we die
He'll never take me for granted I
Said that too when I was his wife

God, he looks handsome in the bright morning light
His smile can light up your world for a while
His love is enough to keep me satisfied
I said that too when I was his wife

When you're blinded by diamonds and driven by lust
Hon', you can't build a mansion with a piece of sawdust
Holy matrimony, best day of your life (best day of your life)
I said that too when I was his wife

He's funny as hell, hot as July
He's strong when I'm weak, sweet when I cry
I'll always be the apple of his eye
I said that too when I was his wife

When you're blinded by diamonds and driven by lust
Hon', you can't build a mansion with a piece of sawdust
Holy matrimony, best day of your life (best day of your life)
I said that too when I was his wife
I said that too when I was his wife
