

Amore

Pitbull

They're dying to kill
And living to die
Snubnosed, headshots
If you touch anything that's mine
Respect, Loyalty
Dan la vida para la familia
They'll live for the honor
They'll kill for the honor
They'll die for the honor
Wise guys take lives in the box
Look the judge in their eyes
Put their hand on the bible
And lie to you, only to leave something to the coroner

Fuck the law, fuck the feds, fuck cops
Pop-pop, catch you at your favorite spot
Well-dressed, intermittent, but dangerous
Go-getters, hustlers, gangstes
Everything organized
And if they hit us, surprise
One to the heart and two to the brain
Looks like he lost his mind, let's ride
There's rules and codes
You don't break them for no one
Unless you're a fool like that fucking prick
Sammy the Bull

Amore, mio Amore
I've waited for you
To save me tonight
But you left me dying
Slowly inside
Amore, Amore mio, Amore
I've waited for you
To bring me to life
But you left me dying
Dying inside

Three pice suit with a piece by the waistline
Just in case a motherfucker wanna take mine
I'ma get mine, get theirs, get yours
Cocked back, click-clack, give me that fat line
Mob royalty, walk out the court, not guilty, filthy
But dressed so fresh, so clean
So gentleman, so mean
So loved, so hated
Yeah, I killed, yeah, I extorted
Yeah, I robbed, but I'm the god of the mob
Fuck it, I made it
From nothing to something, scum to thug
Thug to gangster, gangster to mobster
No pot to piss in to pasta and lobster
Bitch, I'm a rockstar
The king from Queens
That killed and died for his dreams
The rotten apple from the Big Apple
The realest gangster you ever seen

John Gotti, Teflon Don
The rotten apple from the Big Apple
John Gotti

Amore, Amore mio, Amore
I've waited for you
To bring me to life
Dying inside
I've waited for you
To save me tonight
But you left me dying
