

Anybody Else

Pixie Lott

Bigger than an ocean
Smaller than a wave
Louder than the thunder
Then quiet like the rain
And I'm the only one
To see both sides of you the same
Even on our darkest days
I still wanna say

I'd rather be lost with you
Than find myself with anybody else
I'd rather be broken with you
Than brand new with anybody else
I'd rather be blind
Ooh
Than to see myself
Go through this world with anybody else
With anybody else
With anybody else

Stronger than a lion
But then so vulnerable
Taller than a giant
But then you're feeling small
And I'm the only one
To see those sides
That you don't show
Even when we're far from home
I want you to know

I'd rather be lost with you
Than find myself with anybody else
I'd rather be broken with you
Than brand new with anybody else
I'd rather be blind
Ooh
Than to see myself
Go through this world with anybody else
With anybody else
With anybody else

You're always there
To hold my hand
And that is what makes you a man
You're the only one to see
All the hidden sides of me

I'd rather be lost with you
Than find myself with anybody else
I'd rather be broken with you
Than brand new with anybody else
I'd rather be blind
Ooh baby
Than to see myself
Go through this world with anybody else

I'd rather be lost with you

Than find myself with anybody else
I'd rather be broken with you
Than brand new with anybody else
I'd rather be blind
Oooh
Than to see myself
Go through this world with anybody else
With anybody else
