Cry Baby

Pixie Lott

I got to break it to you
Feels so incredible
Not to need you no more

Say that your story ain't true
Cause I saw your new friend
And baby, I ain't no fool

Cause you wreck my mind
Feeding me the same old lines
Saying that you left something behind
Just to come back around, to come back around

You must be high
To think that I'd ever, ever come back to you, baby
You're so high
Cause I know you've never been good to me

Go ahead and cry, cry, cry, baby
Cry, cry, cry, baby
Cry, baby, over me

You little cry, cry, cry baby
It's goodbye, baby
Cry, baby, over me

Oh boy, you're officially screwed
Now you're once painted black
Cause you can't get me back

Tables are turning on you
Now you're calling me up
When you're drinking too much

And you wreck my mind
When you repeat the same old lines
Saying that you left something behind
And you come back around, you come back around

You must be high
To think that I'd ever, ever come back to you, baby
You're so high
Cause I know you've never been good to me

Go ahead and cry, cry, cry, baby
Cry, cry, cry, baby
Cry, baby, over me

You little cry, cry, cry baby
It's goodbye, baby
Cry, baby, over me

God only knows why you do this to yourself
Trying to move on but you're giving me hell
You say "Better the devil that you know"
Is that some kind of joke?

Stop, stop what you do, do to yourself, self
Baby, begging doesn't suit you
Stop, stop what you do, do to yourself, self
To yourself

You must be high

Go ahead and cry, cry, cry, baby
Cry, cry, cry, baby

It's goodbye, baby

Cry, oh whoa
Go ahead and cry
