

Dirty Game

Pixie Lott

You sent me a message said you're sorry
How come I don't feel like your sincere
Those excuses sound so useless, baby
This time rewind and I'll make it clear

You're playing a dirty game, dirty game
I know that you don't deserve me
Telling me little white lies
She denies
Baby, I won't let you hurt me

No dirty games, dirty games
Oh oh oh
No dirty games, dirty games
Oh oh oh

I think we're done, there's no point in screaming
I've told you so many times before
You don't seem to hear me or believe it
Read my lips now and I'll say it once more

You're playing a dirty game, dirty game
I know that you don't deserve me
Telling me little white lies
She denies
Baby, I won't let you hurt me

No dirty games, dirty games
Oh oh oh
No dirty games, dirty games
Oh oh oh

I've told you so many times before, baby
Read my lips now I'll say it once more
Baby, baby, baby

You're playing a dirty game, dirty game
I know that you don't deserve me
Telling me little white lies
She denies

Baby, I won't let you hurt me
No dirty games, dirty games
Oh oh oh
No dirty games, dirty games
Oh oh oh
Oh oh woah
