

I Throw My Hands Up

Pixie Lott

I throw my hands up
Guesses so in tears
I keep dancing baby
And I'm going crazy without you you you
I make my mind up
And let go my fears
If it not forever, I'll take whatever without you you you

It's not worth living

I think I'll miss a bit of us when I'm not here
I need your kisses all of you
And I remember every little thing about ya and I would keep hold of you

I throw my hands up
Guesses so in tears
I keep dancing baby
And I'm going crazy without you you you
I make my mind up
And let go my fears
If it not forever I'll take whatever without you you you

It's not worth living

I will enjoy the time we've had
And you move on and I'll admit it I'll break down
But I'll get up I won't give up
Cause life goes on and I'll wait till my back turns around

I throw my hands up
Guesses so in tears
I keep dancing baby
And I'm going crazy without you you you
I make my mind up
And let go my fears
If it not forever I'll take whatever without you you you

It's not worth living

Guess I'm a sucker, for what you've gotta
Without you, yes I'm a sucker for what you've gotta

I throw my hands up
Guesses so in tears
I keep dancing baby
And I'm going crazy without you you you
I make my mind up
And let go my fears
If it not forever I'll take whatever without you you you

It's not worth living [x3]
