Summer Days

Pixie Lott

10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1, zero

Wearing nothing but a sombre dress on my body.
We've come back to all the emptiness and I,
Feel the sun on my skin,
Warming up my heart within;
Counting the days.
Lying in the park,
Feeling the spark,
Telling you stop,
Doing nothing all day,
(Day dreaming away).
Messing around,
While I drown,
Falling for somebody.

I cant wait for those summer days (summer days)
Feel the sun shining on my face. (On my face)
Let someone take my breath away.
And we'll see ooh-ooh, maybe,
That someone is you. (Its you)

I've been riding on my back, rolling down to the beach.
Calling all my friends to come swim with me.
And the worries on my mind, I know that they are still there.
I'm counting the days.

I cant wait for those summer days (summer days)
Feel the sun shining on my face. (On my face)
Let someone take my breath away.
And we'll see ooh-ooh, maybe,
That someone is you. (Its you)

I cant wait for those summer days (summer days)
Feel the sun shining on my face. (On my face)
Let someone take my breath away.
And we'll see ooh-ooh, maybe,
That someone is you. (Its you)
