

Two Shooting Starts

Pixie Lott

It feels like I'm flying
But it feels like I'm lost
I'ma keep holding on
Yes, I'ma keep holding on
'Cos I know it's worth trying
And I hope that we're strong
So I'ma keep holding on
Yes, I'ma keep holding on, yeah

Spinning out in a new direction
All I want is to find protection
Can someone help me now?
Tell me how we're gonna work it out when

We're two shooting stars
Heading for the wrong planets
And it's ok, it's ok, yeah
And these two beating hearts
Have gotta find their own way
And it's ok, it's ok, yeah

Ok, it's ok, yeah
Ok, it's ok, yeah
You know you're always gonna be someone's baby, yeah
Ok, it's ok, yeah
Ok, it's ok, yeah
And no matter what you know I'll always be there

But the world just keeps turning
And your heart can't keep up
People move along
Yes, people move along
And I gotta stop this burning
I gotta turn it off
'Cos I can't keep holding on
No, I can't keep holding on, yeah

Never thought that we'd move apart
Never thought that it would be this hard
But would you look at us now
Finally we're figuring out that

We're two shooting stars
Heading for the wrong planets
And it's ok, it's ok, yeah
And these two beating hearts
Have gotta find their own way
And it's ok, it's ok, yeah

That pain in your eyes
No I can't deny it still hurts me
But we got to be strong (be strong)
We got to move on (move on)
This is not where we belong
When you know it inside
It's the time, it's the time for goodbye
I know it's hard

We're two shooting stars
Heading for the wrong planets
And it's ok, it's ok, yeah
And these two beating hearts
Have gotta find their own way
And it's ok, it's ok, yeah

We're two shooting stars
Heading for the wrong planets
And it's ok, it's ok, yeah
And these two beating hearts
Have gotta find their own way
And it's ok, it's ok, yeah

Ok, it's ok, yeah
Ok, it's ok, yeah
There's gotta be a reason why we came together
Ok, it's ok, yeah
Ok, it's ok, yeah
Oh, there's gotta be a reason why it's not forever
