Let me know, let me know

Slowly, you're spreading into me
My heart for you keeps growing
Dreaming boy, ever since I first saw you

There's this mysterious feeling
I get only from you
As if I'm dreaming
You light a fire in my heart
I got this feeling
So can you fill in
I keep wanting to know you
But there are only question marks

Let me be around, this moment with you
Baby, don't hesitate, it's alright
Wanna know you right now
Your unfamiliar scent provokes me even more
Driving me crazy, show me now now
From a to z boy
I only wanna know you

Let me know boy
Let me let me know boy
Let me know boy
Let me let me know boy

I just wanna know everything about you
Teach me more, teach me more, about
(You you)
Tell me why I can only see you
You keep burning me up
I just wanna know
I just wanna know
From a to z boy
I only wanna know you

Tell me
Why is it so hard?
You make me more curious about you
Why so beautiful oh yeah
When I see you, I keep hesitating
When we meet eyes
My heart drops and disappears somewhere

I can't take it
I'm falling deeper
I'm becoming more childish because of you
I'm about to go crazy

Oh I can't stand it baby
So show me more, I want you

Let me be around, this moment with you
Baby, don't hesitate, it's alright
From a to z boy
