Still with me
You're still with me

I can see your eyes
Even in the dark void
I can hear your voice
Even where sounds devoid
Though you're far far away from me
Far enough where we can't reach
Still with me
You're still with me

Why are my feelings so distant and far
I say it's all fine but why do I feel so lonely
I just wanna be alone
No I don't wanna be alone
The night's long once more so long it's gone

Like a dream, done
When the darkness took over and I'd lost my sanity
You pointed towards the path that I must take to liberty
I don't know if it's gonna even make me alright
Once the night is done, I'll rise again high and upright

I can see your eyes
Even in the dark void
I can hear your voice
Even where sounds devoid
Though you're far far away from me
Far enough where we can't reach
Still with me
You're still with me

Stretched like a dreamlike illusion
Everything's a lie
Wondering if, here in this place
If it's okay to say that I exist
Standing beside my confused self
It was you who had grabbed my hand, it's you

Feel like it's escaping my mind
Oh everyday as if I conquered it all
Even on the days that I am frustrated
I say, all right

I can see your eyes
Even in the dark void
I can hear your voice
Even where sounds devoid

Oh oh oh...

Though you're far far away from me
Far enough where we can't reach
Still with me
You're still with me
