

Airplane

Pizzicato Five

talking like a kid
walking like a kid biting your nails like a kid being selfish like a kid favorite foods like a kid eating like a kid

being fussy like a kid becoming whimsical like a kid with a sulky face

you're so quiet
then talking away
it seems endless
you're the type who'd be happy being told you're like holden caulfield
or something

loving tv like a kid loving games like a kid telling lies like a kid suddenly crying like a kid

that's fine as it is somehow everyday
making a living
doing what you like
appearing on tv
appearing in magazines
releasing records
becoming famous
If you can make living on playing
that's fine as it is
If you make it to the airplane,
that's fine as it is
that's fine as it is

putting on kids clothes needing attention like a kid wasting money like a kid loving to break things like a kid always being pampered

by someone
always loving to play loud with someone pushing the accelerator
and speeding up
making a mess
of your hotel room

that's fine as it is,
you make a living
walking a tightrope
appearing on tv,

becoming rich
being in scandals
If you can make a living by playing,
If you show up to the party,
If you're paying taxes, that's fine as is
