PJ Harvey

What do you know about love?
You don't know what I know
How much, how much will you give me
To tell you what some would kill for

About love?
Love

It'll twist out your limbs with pain
It'll stomp out your eyes and everything

Love, yeah
Evol

Baby, how much money?
Read my lips, baby
How much money?
Read my lips, baby
How much money?
How much, baby
Will you give me, give me?

Some call it the beating heart
Some call it God
They're just romantic fools
I call it evol

Love, you've got a lot to answer for
Love, you've got a lot to answer for
Love, you've got a lot to answer for
Love, you've got a lot to answer for
Evol, evol
Evol, evol
