

Escape

PJ Morton

Every time you look at the news
Another story and another disaster
They take away our freedom to choose
We demonstrate and can't even get an answer
Don't even know what to do
Got all these dreams you wanna keep running after
But they feel so far away

Somethings telling we're gonna be alright
(Alright we'll be alright)
Live your wildest dreams it's all in your mind
(Your mind)
So go ahead escape, to a place
Get away (don't worry we'll be alright)
Somethings telling me we're gonna be just fine
(Alright)

Is this a safe space to express
Can I be real with you about how I'm feeling
To be totally honest I'm stressed
I'm tryna fight but it feels like they keep winning
I know that they want me to give up
But I can never give them that satisfaction
So I gotta keep on going

Somethings telling we're gonna be alright
(Alright we'll be alright)
Live your wildest dreams it's all in your mind
(Your mind)
So go ahead escape, to a place
Get away (don't worry we'll be alright)
Somethings telling me we're gonna be just fine
(Alright)

(Oooo Oooo Oooh)

Don't just settle for what you see

(Oooo Oooo Oooh)

I promise you it's gonna be

(Alright)

So let me give you this peace of mind

(Alright)

Everything is gonna be just fine

Somethings telling we're gonna be alright
(Alright we'll be alright)
Live your wildest dreams it's all in your mind
(Your mind)
So go ahead escape, to a place
Get away (don't worry we'll be alright)
Somethings telling me we're gonna be just fine

(Alright)

Somethings telling we're gonna be alright

(Alright we'll be alright)

Live your wildest dreams it's all in your mind

(Your mind)

So go ahead escape, to a place

Get away (don't worry we'll be alright)

Somethings telling me we're gonna be just fine

(Alright)
