Hard Enough

PJ Morton

I am looking for a love unconditional
Not one that goes wherever the wind blows
So don't go changing on me as the seasons fade
And if that's too much to ask then you don't have to stay

Because life is just too short to be unhappy
And I don't know what's become of you and me
You can go, just be free

'Cause as it is
It's hard enough, hard enough
Living this life alone
I don't need you I can do bad on my own
It's hard enough, hard enough
Know you's hanging all wrong
I don't want you if you gonna bring me down
Gonna bring me down

Let me be clear so we're seeing eye to eye
I want this forever and forever you and I
But if you can't promise you'll be there through good and bad
Then I rather be by myself instead

Because life is just too short to be unhappy
And I don't know what's become of you and me
You can go, just be free

'Cause as it is
It's hard enough, hard enough
Living this life alone
I don't need you I can do bad on my own
It's hard enough, hard enough
Know you's hanging all wrong
I don't want you if you gonna bring me down

See, there's no use in fighting
Let's talk about it
To see just where we stand
And if we disagree and this is the ending
Just know that I understand

'Cause as it is
It's hard enough, hard enough
Living this life alone
I don't need you I can do bad on my own
It's hard enough, hard enough
Know you's hanging all wrong
I don't want you if you gonna bring me down
Gonna bring me down

If you gonna bring me down...
