

Here He Comes Again

PJ Morton

My world's fallin' apart
I don't even know how I arrived here
But I'm so grateful, mmm
I was about to lose my mind
I didn't think that I could survive it
But I'm still here, ooh

Every time I thought I'd fall
(Oh yeah)
And my moment's here
(And my moment's, moment's here, it's my own)
Just in time
Here He comes again
Just in time
Here He comes again
(Here He comes again, yeah, ooh)

I know the last time I said it was the last time
That was the end, ooh
Please don't give up on me
Here I am, I need you once again
Oh, yes I do

Every time I thought I'd fall
(Every, every time I fought and pushed on, yes I did)
But You never gave up on me
And my moment's here
(And my)
Just in time
Here He comes again (Here He comes)
(Better get down, yeah)
Just in time
Here He comes again
(Here He comes, yeah)

I'm just so glad that He looked out for me
(I'm so glad that He looked out for me)
I'm so glad He'll never leave
(Never, never, never, never leave me)
Even when I don't feel Him there (Oh yeah)

Just in time
Here He comes again
Just in time
Here He comes again
Just in time
Here He comes again
Just in time
Here He comes again (Yeah, yeah)
(Oh, when I'm about to lose my mind)
Here He comes again
Just in time
Here He comes again
(When I was about to throw in the towel)
Here He comes again
Just in time
(Oh, sing the glory, for the coming of the Lord, yeah, yeah)

Here He comes again
Just in time
Here He comes again
(He'll never let you down, no, no, no, no)
Just in time
Here He comes again
