

Cap Back

Plan B

Eh mate, what's that knock your face off,
Yeah mate you, you gotta lose that, that's a brick you build a house with th at, know what I mean
Lose that brick, get a brand new phone, this track's deep you could have it
as your ringtone,
(need to modernize) You could have it as your ringtone,
This track's deep, you could have it as your ringtone (now pull a funny)
Lose that brick, get a brand new phone, this track's deep you could have it
as your ringtone,
(it's the way forward mate) You could have it as your ringtone,
This track's deep, you could have it as your ringtone

Show off those shoes, those creps, (those creps)
Score that top that vest, (that vest)
Mung those jeans, those slacks, (those slacks)
Slow back with your cap turned back,
Show off those nikes, those 'boks,
Score that shirt, that top, (that top)
Mung those strides, those slacks (those slacks)
Slow back with your cap turned back,

Explurt me, I'll just explurt you back
To you, it's not about where you from it's about where you at,
Talk complete crap about no bats and cats,
And still make cats when I go and buy this track,
Cause the simple fact is the world's gone mad
And what everybody seems to cares about is what's the new fad,
What's the latest fashion, oh that looks bad,
Out with the old in with the new, cause it tells you to in a mag,
It's kind a sad, but ain't you a man to speak,
Wouldn't say no to a fresh pair of creps on my feet
Problem is I'm fucking broke, it's why I'm on this beat
Fuckin' yeah I'm selling out, what you expect I'm weak, Nothing talks louder than money, don't gimme that then you're the one who's trying to be funny
Even when your jokes aside, though I'm talking crap,
Man you know you love this track.

Show off those shoes, those creps, (those creps)
Score that top that vest, (that vest)
Mung those jeans, those slacks, (those slacks)
Slow back with your cap turned back, (with your cap turned back)
Show off those Nikes, those 'boks,
Score that shirt, that top, (that top)
Mung those strides, those slacks, (those slacks)
Slow back with your cap turned back,

Everybody knows that designer labels sell,
And I ain't no different from anyone else,
I want the fame, the girls, the wealth,
So I'll use this track to advertise myself,
Am I hustling you, yes ever so slightly,
Does it matter no, that's right now buy me,
I'll rip you off and still make you like me,
Plan B, street credible like Nike,
You find a single down at HMV
Virgin megastore any place that sells CD's

So go and get your filthy mits on this,
And hear another white rapper blatantly taking the piss,
Then do exactly as it says on the track, (what's that?)
Bust slow back with your cap turned back, (oh yeah)
Go into a club and grind some biatch
When she feels your dick go hard, and she gives you a slap (dirty bastard)

Show off those shoes, those creps, (those creps)
Score that top that vest, (that vest)
Mung those jeans, those slacks, (those slacks)
Slow back with your cap turned back, (with your cap turned back)
Show off those Nikes, those 'boks, (those 'boks)
Score that shirt, that top, (that top)
Mung those strides, those slacks (those slacks)
Slow back with your cap turned back,

Lose that brick, get a brand new phone, this track's deep you could have it
as your ringtone,
You could have it as your ringtone,
This track's deep you could have it as your ringtone,
Lose that brick, get a brand new phone, this track's deep you could have it
as your ringtone,
You could have it as your ringtone,
This track's deep you could have it as your ringtone,

Don't conform, don't be a clone,
Fuck fashion have a style of your own,
Be a trendsetter buy a brand new phone,
This track's deep you could have it as your ringtone,
And when you do make sure it's polyphonic
So wherever you are, let's ask Chris if you can get on it,
Bust a move to your feet for friction,
Completely forget that this whole track's a contradiction,
End of the day it's just a party song,
And it makes you feel alright so it can't be wrong,
So everybody, bust slow back, turn your cap back
Dance to this feeling that I'm writing from,
Right now everybody do the cap back,
Everybody do the cap back,
Everybody do the cap back,
Bust slow back, do that ting with your hat,
Right now everybody do the cap back,
Everybody do the cap back,
Everybody do the cap back,
Bust slow back, do that ting with your hat,

Show off those shoes, those creps, (those creps)
Score that top that vest, (that vest)
Mung those jeans, those slacks, (those slacks)
Slow back with your cap turned back,
Show off those Nikes, those 'boks, (those 'boks)
Score that shirt, that top, (that top)
Mung those strides, those slacks, (those slacks)
Slow back with your cap turned back,

Yeah, know what I mean bro,
All about fashion nowadays, you get me,
It's a, what, what you call it a, urban, that's it urban mate,
Know what I mean you gotta represent,
It's all about busting your own back and turning your cap back,
Get me, oh yeah,
Lose that brick.
