

Heaven Before All Hell Breaks Loose

Plan B

Fate is not for me, I've never known a love like this Something quite like heaven makes me forget hell exists
It's easier to close your eyes, give your sweetheart a kiss
Ignore what's going on outside, yeah ignorance is bliss
Is what they say, yeah, ain't it true though? Yeah, yeah

They sold us a dream, the one they know that won't come true
And when we question what they tell us
They run right back out of view
Fool us with distractions there to throw us off the trail
Hypernormalisation, we won't be set up to fail

Heaven before all hell breaks loose
Let's just enjoy ourselves while we still got it good
Throwing heaven on Earth, it's true
Be sure that hell is too

Feel that we're all sleeping even when we're wide awake
Trudging deeper with every step we take
Sit to waste your worth while we wait for things to change
Wondering inspector to put things right
We're the real ones here to blame

And you know, ooo
Know it's true bro, yeah yeah

Heaven before all hell breaks loose
Let's just enjoy ourselves while we still got it good
Throwing heaven on Earth, it's true
Be sure that hell is too

You keep on running right back
Yeah, you keep on running right back
To the lies they first sold us
Do you question what they told us?
You keep on running right back
Yeah, you keep on running right back
To the lies they first sold us
Do you question what they told us?

Heaven before all hell breaks loose
Let's just enjoy ourselves while we still got it good
Throwing heaven on Earth, it's true
Be sure that hell is too
I said be sure that hell is too
