

Unveil the Unknown

Plan Three

We live ordinary lives
And we tell our friends we try
No tears to cry
In our ordinary lives

I am waiting

Let's go unveil the unknown
I am ready here we go
Into the wild and pray that we wake up
A little oblivion keeps us grateful
Let's go unveil the unknown

We say we don't belong
And that everyone's got us wrong
One day we're gone
And we say we don't belong

Yeah I am waiting

Let's go unveil the unknown
I am ready here we go
Into the wild and pray that we wake up
A little oblivion keeps us grateful
Let's go unveil the unknown

I am waiting
And yes this is my time
I am ready

Let's go unveil the unknown
I am ready here we go
Into the wild and pray that we wake up
A little oblivion keeps us grateful
