I cried all my tears now that i am stronger
you make me lose my head girl without a things you've said girl how should i know the good times are fading babee.. i know without you
how should i know,i'll go on despite u babe
i am finding the cure

i'll never be the same again now only a name or main i saw a wiev makes me go inside thinking of us will be doing it again where you are.. do you feel the same

you make me lose my head girl without the things u said girl how should i know the good times are fading babe
how should i know,i'll go on despite u babe
how should i know,i'll go on despite u babe
