

Laces

Planet Funk

Pull up and see you walking home
I'm in the red but my dreams are blue and..
You couldn't do wrong if you tried
It looks so easy for you from where I hide

Now I'm watching and I'm waiting for your laces to come untied
The sky is glowing and your legs cast a shadow for a mile

Down at the shops I join the queue
You drop your change and I almost pass out
Then on the bus just me and you
I miss my stop but it's worth the extra mile

Now I'm watching and I'm waiting for your laces to come
untied
The sky is glowing and your legs cast a shadow for a mile

Pull up and see you walking home
I'm in the red but my dreams are blue..
