

Nothing On You

planetboom

I could search the whole world and I still won't find Any good reason gonna change my mind
'Cause this world's got nothing on You
I can't be bought, I'm already sold
Sold out for the cause, Lord, I give my all
'Cause this world's got nothing on You
This world's got nothing on You

'Cause when it fails, You don't
When they change, You won't
You're the love that my whole world is looking for
You're the truth over lies
You're the center of my life
Jesus, You are all my heart is beating for
This world's got nothing on You
This world's got nothing on You

All they offer is a cheap imitation
Of the love that I've found in my Saviour
This world's got nothing on You
You're the love of my life, You're my go-to Every breath in my lungs breathing for You
This world's got nothing on You
This world's got nothing on You
(C'mon, lift your hands)

'Cause when it fails, You don't
When they change, You won't
You're the love that my whole world is looking for
You're the truth over lies
You're the center of my life
Jesus, You are all my heart is beating for
This world's got nothing on You
This world's got nothing on You

(Nothing on You, got nothing on you)
(This world's got nothing on, nothing on You)
(Nothing on You, got nothing on you)
(This world's got nothing on, nothing on You)
(Nothing on You, got nothing on you)
(This world's got nothing on, nothing on You)

Somebody told me that the best thing
I could live for is my dreams coming true
But nothing else will do compared to You
You're so much better than any other offer
More than dreams, more than needs
Jesus, all I live for
No one can tell me that this world could fulfill me
'Cause I know it's true
That nothing satisfies compared to You
So here I'm standing with my hands raised high
Saying, Jesus
All I want is You

Hey, yeah
It's You, it's You, it's You

Yeah
We worship You
We praise Your name

'Cause when it fails, You don't
When they change, You won't
You're the love that my whole world is looking for
You're the truth over lies
You're the center of my life
Jesus, You are all my heart is beating for
This world's got nothing on You
