

Draw Close Again

Planetshakers

Close enough to feel Your touch
I'm in between Your loving arms
Worship is my heart's response
You're all I want, You're all I want

Close enough to see Your face
I'm caught in Your eyes, Your gaze
I can hear the sound of heaven
Call my name, You call my name

So I draw close again
And give You all I am
To bring You praise
To bless Your holy name
There is awe and wonder
In the love of Your embrace

Close enough to hear You speak
Abide with me in fields of grace
Your presence, Lord is all I seek
You're all I want, You're all I want

So I draw close again
And give You all I am
To bring You praise
To bless Your holy name
'Cause there is awe and wonder
In the love of Your embrace
So I draw close again
And give You all I am
To bring You praise
To bless Your holy name
'Cause there is awe and wonder
In the love of Your embrace

I can feel it, deep within my soul
I can see it, Your glory all around
Faith is rising, my heart will give You praise
Lord, Your presence is my all, yeah
I can feel it, deep within my soul
And I can see it, Your glory all around
Faith is rising, yes, my heart will give You praise
Lord, Your presence is my all
I can feel it, deep within my soul
And I can see it, Your glory all around
Faith is rising, my heart will give You praise
Lord, Your presence is my all

So I draw close again
Oh, and give You all I am
To bring You praise
To bless Your holy name
'Cause there is awe and wonder
In the love of Your embrace

I can feel it, deep within my soul
I can see it, Your glory all around

Faith is rising, my heart will give You praise
Lord, Your presence is my all
I can feel it, deep within my soul
I can see it, Your glory all around, yeah
Faith is rising, my heart will give You praise
Lord, Your presence is my all
I can feel it, deep within my soul
I can see it, Your glory all around, yeah-eh-ehh
Faith is rising, my heart will give You praise
Lord, Your presence is my all
I can feel it, deep within my soul
I can see it, Your glory all around
Faith is rising, my heart will give You praise
Lord, Your presence is my all

Your presence is my all
Your presence is my all
Your presence is my all
Your presence is my all
Your presence is my all
Your presence is my all
Your presence is my all
Your presence is my all
