

Face To Face

Planetshakers

Here, now
This is the moment
Speak now
I'm out in the open
With emptied hands
I reach again
These walls are
Finally falling
The space
Between us is closing
My heart gives way
To perfect grace

I'm drawing closer
Than ever before
You've patiently waited
And now I am sure
Jesus
I lay my defenses down
'Cause I just want You now

My fears concede
To Your sureness
My shame melts
Away in Your brilliance
And now I see
You're all I need

I'm drawing closer
Than ever before
You've patiently waited
And now I am sure
Jesus
I lay my defenses down
'Cause I just want You now

Always faithful
You welcome me home
And my heart will
Praise You
My God, my reward
Jesus
I lay my defenses down
'Cause I just want You now
'Cause I just want You now
'Cause I just want You

You meet me
Face to face
You wrap me
In Your embrace
When You look
Me in the eye
I know
You just want me now
You just want me now
So I give You

The highest praise
And I'll worship
For all my days
When I look
You in the eye
I know
I just want You now
I just want You now

You meet me
Face to face
You wrap me
In Your embrace
Me in the eye
I know
You just want me now
So I give You
The highest praise
And I'll worship
For all my days
When I look
You in the eye
I know
I just want You now
I just want You now
I just want You now
I just want You now
You just want me now
You just want me now
