

Father

Planetshakers

God You breathed my existence
You're the One who holds my heart
You made me out of nothing
Fashioned every part

Always watching over me

Father I adore
Father I am Yours
Joy of my heart
Forever You are
My Father

Every breath every heartbeat
In the hollow of Your head
Every step how I need You
The lifter of my head

Before the dawn of time
Throughout eternity
You called me as Your own
A child of majesty
So I will lift my hands
And I will glorify Your Name
