

Stepping In

Planetshakers

I'm running towards You
I'm yearning, Lord for You
With every part of me
I'm chasing Your glory
Pursuing Your presence
With every part of me
With every part of me

There's no place I'd rather be
Than here with You
Heaven is an open door
And I'm running through

I'm stepping in to the secret place
I'm moving in, into Your embrace
It's just me and You
I'm pressing in, I can hear You call
I'm leaning in, 'cause I know there's more
I will wait on

You I'm running towards You
I'm yearning, Lord for You
With every part of me
With every part of me

I lean into Your love
Father Your arms will carry me
I lean into Your love
Spirit Your wind will hold me
