

I'll Be Back Again

Plastic Bertrand

I'll be back again
Down into this human world
And through my joy, my pain
The day of my return
I'll be back one day
Down into your planet earth
A million years awake
I'll wait till it's my turn

Look at world in your hands
Why don't you give it a chance
Sharing your love and your soul
Is that crazy after all?
There when your smiles and your tears
Something is calling me near
The planet you see up above
And I'm not human after all

I'll be back again (I love you so)
Down into this human world (world, we'll go)
And through my joy, my pain (I wish you so)
The day of my return
I'll be back one day (I love you so)
Down into your planet earth (world, we'll go)
A million years awake (I wish you so)
I'll wait till it's my turn

You're my soul you, don't you know
How much I don't wanna go?
Knowing the love you can give
Give it all the time you'll live
Humans are you, don't you cry
I'll be away for a while
Do all the good you can do
It will all come home to you

I'll be back again
(Be back again, be back again, be back again)
I'll be back again
(Be back again, be back again, be back again)

I'll be back again (I love you so)
Down into your human world (I love you more than you know)
No, I won't break the chain (I wish you so)
I got so much to learn
I'll be back one day (gotta go, gotta go, gotta go)
Down onto your planet earth (I love you so)
Beware of what you play
Your points of no return

I'll be back again
(Be back again, be back again)
I'll be back again
(Be back again, be back again) (when I will go)
I'll be back again
(Be back again, be back again) (I'll miss you so)
(Be back again, be back again)

I'll be back again
(Be back again, be back again)
I'll be back again
(Be back again, be back again)
I'll be back again
(Be back again, be back again)
Be back again, be back again)

(Be back again, be back again
Be back again, be back again
Be back again, be back again)
