

Red Light

Platinum Blonde

Tears on your window
Don't tell me you're satisfied
You've got tears on your pillow
Come and meet me on the other side
Tonight could last forever
Tonight we could take control
Waiting for society
To take a piece of you and a piece of me?

And we're strangers in the red light
You can't tell me that it's alright
Oh no, red light
Until eternity is out of sight
Out of sight out of touch

With the sound of voices inside your head
Calls to me, from the dark side
On sacred ground we tread
Tonight is a silent rage
Tonight we break our cage
She knows what she want's to see
It's a piece of you it's a piece of me

Never tame the rational
Charmed inside this chemical
It takes you to a faster train
We won't ever take you home again
