

Wait Until Tomorrow

Player

You've been sat there
Starin' at the fire
Got your suitcase
Waitin' by the door

You can blame me
Baby, if you want to
But don't leave me
With a tear in your eye

'Cause if you wait until tomorrow
Everything will be much clearer
If you could forget about your sorrow
Just for one night, woman
See things in a different light
Wait until tomorrow
Wait until tomorrow
Wait until tomorrow

Girl, you got good reason
I've shattered your illusion
Say you saw me cruisin'
With another by my side

Oh, you tell me, tell me, tell me, darling

That it's over
So won't you give me one more chance? (Give me one more)
Oh, I know you'll change your mind

'Cause if you wait until tomorrow
Everything will be much clearer
If you could forget about your sorrow
Just for one night, baby
See things in a different light
Wait until tomorrow
Wait until tomorrow
Wait until tomorrow

Wait until tomorrow
Wait until tomorrow
Wait until tomorrow

Whoo, wait until tomorrow
Wait until tomorrow
Wait until tomorrow
