

Sailin' The Seven Seas Alone

PlayRadioPlay!

let's be realistic,
all my fans hate you,
you made them jealous,
and then let us down,
and the truth is,
I hate the way i am,
but you gave up on me,
so I'm sailing the seven seas alone.
the pollen and heat make me hate this spring,
and all the insecurities it brings with it,
we got it started in the back of my car,
did you forget?
it wasn't that bad.

this is what it's like,
this is what it's like,
to hate the way you are and all your friends.

this is the way to my heart, here's a map, can you find me,
or will you keep me waiting?
it's sunny outside,
like everyday you kept me sane.
it only makes the pain stay.
