

You Changed

Pleasure P

You make decisions and do what you want
I'm sitting here steady rolling a blunt
Times that we spend now we ain't even friends
I don't think that it get better than this
Remember I bought you the Lexus
Remember I showed you the best
Remember I spent hella checks
I was buying you bloody shoes
Now you're fucking with that other dude (ahhhh nahhhh)

Girl you changed on me
Girl you changed on me (ohhh nooo)
After all of the shit that we've been through
How you put the blame on me
How you move on so quick
Change ya name on me
Like I ain't the reason you got what you got baby
Like it ain't all me
You changed
You changed
Said you would ride for me
How you switch sides on me
I went the extra mile for you
But you didn't try for me
You changed
You changed
Said you would ride for me
How you switch sides on me
I went the extra mile for you
But you didn't try for me
You changed and I remember

The days you used to love me
And I never thought I'd
See the day that this love would fade away
Girl I gave you my heart and you crossed me
Whatever I had we was splitting that Back just to make sure we were both saucin
I still speak to your momma quite often
Cause I love your fam like they my fam
And your pops looked me dead in the eye and told me I'm that man
I don't understand why

Girl you changed on me (ohhhh ohhh)
