

I Remember

Plies

I remember, I remember, I remember
She can't get triggered
She definitely get triggered
I remember, I remember, I remember
I remember I used to think about you
I remember I used to think like you
I remember I used to think I was you
And then I found out that you were real, nigga

I remember I used to think I was you
I remember how you used to think it was real
And then I found out that you were real, nigga
I remember, I remember how I used to think like you
I remember I used to think it was real
And then I found that you were real, nigga

You always turn a pussy into a pray, my nigga
I always thought you was a brand, my nigga
For the torn niggas, some got down, my nigga
And therefore, nigga I understand all that
See the money, I could have given you that
But the bitch, you nigga with, ain't waitin' all that
A real nigga dog won't play like that
... I wanna dirt you all when snakes won't go
Don't mean dog I might have killed you dog

Rule no 1, don't fear be a man
Rule no 2, don't bite no hand
Rule no 3, and the most important rule
That all you niggas cross and you get to his ass

I remember I used to think I was you, I remember
I remember I used to think you were real, I remember
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga

I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga
I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga
I remember, I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga

I can't do that, that's a real nigga image
They likin' you won't feel my nigga
... I learned there from nigga, how a nigga should be
... What you niggas want when a nigga is on the deal
All the 100 niggas are on the same thing
If gets better, if gets worse, the niggas stay the same
They call you and talk every day man
Be a nigga like that
And I never ever gonna fuck with niggas like that
And bein' a real nigga is something I never take back
I feel like I owe you something, I did it on track

I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga
I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga
I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga
I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga

You know, sometimes you got to have shit, man
That's the way you don't know
I'll be tripping all the time
I'll be watching you and flowing

I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga
I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga
I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga
I remember, I remember how you used to think it was real
I remember how I used to think you were real
And then I found out you were real, nigga
