

Wrong Or Right

Plies

Yea, you my brother
I'll ride with you
Wrong or right
And even when you wrong
I'm still gon ride

For my brother
I'm riding witchu
Wrong or right
And even when you wrong
I'm still gon ride
But like you always told me
What's yours is mine
And I feel the same way bruh
I'll give you my last dime

We was in the same cell
Had our freedom on the line
You looked at me
I looked at you
We said fuck it
We gon ride
He my heart and my lungs
I mean that shit
I swear to god
Cant nothing come between us
And tear us apart
We done been thru hell and back
Cuz we built for it
The bond that we share is something special
I'll kill for it
Lost a couple niggas on the way
But that's how life go
If niggas ever said we ain't keep it solid
That's a typo
If I ain't got nobody else
I know that I got you and me
The love that we got is something special
Runs super-deep
I ain't gotta think about it twice
I'll go broke for you
Ever need me to handle something
I'll kick a door for you
They got to get it in blood
When it come to you
I'll stand on any nigga
When it come to you
You ain't never jump ship on me
Then or now
One of the main reasons why
I love you now

And for my brother
I'm riding witchu
Wrong or right
And even when you wrong

But like you always told me
What's yours is mine
And I feel the same way bruh

Niggas ain't real no more
They just talkin
Niggas ain't biting no more
They just barking
I ain't the type of nigga
That's scared to tell you I love you
I'm the type of nigga if I love you
Then I love you
I'm the type of nigga if I'm for you
Then I'm for you
We done made money together
I'm talking millions
We done came up from nothing
I'm talkin trenches
I remember being up late
Scraping them beakers
Shoulda been in church
But riding choppers on eastland
If you don't fuck with them
Than I don't fuck with them neither
I'll go to war for you
Lie to the law for you
And if I had to lose it all
I'll lose it all for you
I'll go to war for you
Lie to the law for you
And if I had to lose it all
I'll lose it all for you
I cross my heart
And hope to die
If you ever need me bruh
You know that I'ma slide

For my brother
I'm riding witchu
Wrong or right
And even when you wrong
I'm still gon ride
But like you always told me
What's yours is mine
And I feel the same way bruh
