

For Once

Plug in Stereo

Finally, for once,
I will pull my weight this time,
No more falling behind.
I was too scared to do the things
I swore that I do right.

Don't make a promise
That you can't keep.
Don't cross your fingers
And hope that it will be
Alright.

Da-da da-da, don't stutter.
Spit it out now, spit it out now.
I can't help but to wonder,
Why can't you get your thoughts out?

Da-da da-da, don't stutter.
Spit it out now, spit it out now.
I can't help but to wonder,
Why can't you get your thoughts out?

Finally, for once,
I will hold back on what to say,
Before she comes my way.
And I can't seem to block
It off by myself.
I need some help from you.
I need some help from you.

Don't make a promise
That you can't keep.
Don't cross your fingers
And hope that it will be.
Alright.

Da-da da-da, don't stutter.
Spit it out now, spit it out now.
I can't help but to wonder,
Why can't you get your thoughts out?

Da-da da-da, don't stutter.
Spit it out now, spit it out now.
I can't help but to wonder,
Why can't you get your thoughts out?

Da-da da-da, don't stutter.
Spit it out now, spit it out now.
I can't help but to wonder,
Why can't you let your thoughts out?

Da-da da-da, don't stutter.
Spit it out now, spit it out now.
I can't help but to wonder,
Why can't you get your thoughts out?
