

The Little Things

Plug in Stereo

They say you don't know what you got, I didn't
My mind was somewhere else
Wanted to get to the top, yeah I couldn't Control myself
You start to lose appreciation when you fall for what greed brings, yeah
Frankly I was mistaken once cuz I forgot about the little things
s

When the world has got you down
Lift your head and look around
Took a while to figure out
It's not about the diamond rings
The beauty queens and magazines
It seems to be, life's about the little things

I was another victim of ambition
I lost a couple friends
And I don't always make the right decisions
But I'm discovering
You start to lose appreciation when you fall for what greed brings, yeah
Frankly I was mistaken once cuz I forgot about the little things

When the world has got you down
Lift your head and look around
Took a while to figure out
It's not about the silver-screen
The silly bling or limousines
It seems to be, lifes about the little things

Na, NaNa NaNa, NaNa NaNa, NaNa Na Naaaaaa
Na, NaNa NaNa, NaNa NaNa, NaNa Na Naaaaaa

They say you don't know what you got, i didn't
But now I figured out,

It's all about the songs we sing
The butterflies that love can bring
It seems to me, life's about the little things
Life's about the little things
Life's about the little things
Life's about the little things
