

Keep My Head Strong

Pluto

In a room full of fake love
Feelin' so alone, I'm finna head home, head home
A weak mind never last long, I'm just tryna keep my head strong
, head strong

Keep hearin' the same song in my headphones
On DND, she think she keep callin' a dead phone
Blick on me, don't think it's sweet 'cause then it's redrum
I'm talkin' send so many shots until you dead drop
Chasin' bread, I need the loaf, ain't even near a crumb
Silly rabbit, think you're trickin' me, I'm playin' dumb
Pop a Perc' and go to work, I ain't even plan to come
Only the presidents talkin', niggas ain't sayin' nothin'
Thought a fuck nigga said somethin'
Keep a pole, hoes fed up
Shoot a couple hundred and get some head from her
I'm just feedin' the hungry
From the feds the only time you'd probably seein' me runnin'
One to the head for all my niggas dead, hold on, I'm comin'

In a room full of fake love
Feelin' so alone, I'm finna head home, head home
A weak mind never last long, I'm just tryna keep my head strong
, head strong

Too much money, need a machine, can't do no hands on
I been on the road, you fuckin' off, you know you dead wrong
Hope you hear this song and think about me when you head home
Can't leave your side, you know I got you, shit really Death Row w
This shit be real
Cold-hearted, so I'm ignorin' how you feel
Fuck it, pay me, then I sign another deal
Don't fake your love, just tell how you fuckin' feel, how you feel
I'm in a room full of snakes and I can feel it, huh
I'm finna head home, head home
And don't tell me that you love me and don't mean it, yeah
You know you dead wrong, dead wrong

In a room full of fake love
Feelin' so alone, I'm finna head home, head home
A weak mind never last long, I'm just tryna keep my head strong
, head strong
