

Need Somebody

PnB Rock

Damn, I fucked up pretty bad
Yeah, I know I was tripping, I know what you thinking, yeah right, what's the difference?
I was creeping on the low and fucking all these bitches
Whole time you knew 'cause that's just woman's intuition
Thinking with my head, not the one on my shoulders
By the time I realized we was already over
I was high all the time, barely I was sober
You was falling out of love and I ain't even notice
Liar liar, heart's on fire
It's crazy how you always felt like the only one trying was you
Sorry for the lies when all you wanted was the truth
Without you by my side, shit, I don't know what to do
Begging on my knees, it's so hard for me to leave, we got all these memories
The good, the bad, the worst, the perfect
I'm fighting for our love because it's worth it

Damn, why you wanna leave? You know that nigga ain't me
Thugging but I'm stressing lowkey, I'm waiting on you to call me, yeah

Girl, you know you need somebody
'Cause everybody need somebody
Girl, just let me be somebody for you

Me losing you is scary like drowning
Or with no parachute jumping off a mountain
I fucked up about a million times but who's counting
I seen tears pouring out your eyes like fountains
This whole situation got a nigga stressing
But I'd never give up except if you get pregnant
By another nigga, shit, that would hurt me bad
'Cause bitch, you already know I'm supposed to be the dad
Got a nigga all up in my feelings, yeah, I'm in my bag
Like if you did this shit I did to you, could I still take you back?

Don't leave, you know that nigga ain't me
Thugging but I'm stressing lowkey, I'm waiting on you to call me, yeah

Girl, you know you need somebody
'Cause everybody need somebody
Girl, just let me be somebody for you
Girl, you know you need somebody
'Cause everybody need somebody
Girl, just let me be somebody for you
