

When She's Mine

Poco

Fast as a ray of golden light
She dances through my fingers
Gone in a flash, the moment passes
Still my passion lingers
'Round and around she leads me
Where we're going, she won't say
But I follow anyway

The music comes
The music goes
But when she's mine, when she's mine
My heart tells me so

Soft as a whisper in the wind
She wakes me from my sleeping
Is this sweet surrender
Or a promise she's not keeping
One minute, she's an angel
The next she's so unkind
And we dance one more time

'Round and 'round she takes me
Where we're going I don't care
Just as long as she is there
