Elixir

Poema Arcanus

Lyrics: Claudio Carrasco / Music: Igor Leiva

Drink of this potion brought from the night Dark human night, your scent deep inside Of a sea in which thoughts fly

Forgotten passions appear like stars in the night sky Undress your skin and soil it with guilt

...and soil it with guilt...

Chorus:

Blessed by the moonlight Drink this blood from... the earth

Ensure your destiny, write it with a fantasy
The pain has no limit, let it free like a bird...let it free

Wounds with each movement, scrub the hand in a rose A soul trapped in a maze, a moment for the fire

... a moment for the fire...

Chorus:

In the shadows
We became gods... of flesh
.... With this blood from the earth....

Drink of this blood from the earth
