

All the Way / 4U

Poets of the Fall

Seems to matter what I do
So I'm saving this 4U
'Cos it seems to be the last piece there is
And you haven't had a chance, yet
To taste this
Fragments of a life
You shouldn't miss

Seems to matter what I say
So I'll hold my tongue at bay
And rather use my mouth to kiss
Your frown away
So your doubts no longer darken your day
So you can hold your head up
High come what may

So please, remember that
I'm gonna follow through all the way

'Cos it seems to matter where I go
I will always let you know
That the place where I am is never far
You know, you're not alone
Don't be alarmed
I'll find you no matter where you are

So please, remember that
I'm gonna follow through all the way

Oh, my love, if it's all I can do
I'll take the fall 4 U
'Cos I will soar when
I lay down with you and give my all 4 U
