

Picked you up when you found your way out
Barely breathing when I came around
Felt the rocks and the leaves on the ground
Showed up scared but relieved at the faces you found

Tell me what you're running from
Where would you go once you've gone
I've got another reason to hold on

If we stay inside
I'll keep you from harm
Leave the light on in the dark
Even though we're worlds apart
I'll keep you from harm
Just wanna know who you are

I'd give up all my days for a chance
To see you again even though I just wasted my breath

Tell me what you're running from
Where would you go once you've gone
I've got another reason to hold on

If we stay inside
I'll keep you from harm
Leave the light on in the dark
Even though we're worlds apart
I'll keep you from harm
Just wanna know who you are

Just wanna know who you are
Just wanna know who you are
Just wanna know who you are

If we stay inside
I'll keep you from harm
Leave the light on in the dark
Even though we're worlds apart
I'll keep you from harm
Just wanna know who you are
Just wanna know who you are
