

Nice Now

Point North

Yeah this one's for the kids who'd always doubt me
You wanna be nice now, huh
You're so nice now, huh
To all my fuckin' friends who never knew me
You wanna be nice now, huh
You're so nice now, huh

I've always hated playing the victim
Denying the symptoms kept me here
Hallways are flooded with people I don't know
I don't talk to no one based on fear

All my friends have graduated
I'm the last scene kid left to take it
Fake that I'm sick instead of dealing with it
I'm the last scene kid left

Yeah this one's for the kids who'd always doubt me
You wanna be nice now, huh
You're so nice now, huh
To all my fuckin' friends who never knew me
You wanna be nice now, huh
You're so nice now, huh
Used to laugh with your friends everyday
Now you can't get away from my name
Yeah this one's for the kids who would abuse me
You wanna be nice now, huh
You're so nice now, huh

Didn't make a day one until I was 21
Don't know if it's bad luck or if I fucked up
Wish I knew about the life beyond the walls
Wouldn't know where I belong, wouldn't be alone when I grow up

All my friends have graduated
I'm the last scene kid left to take it
Fake that I'm sick instead of dealing with it
I'm the last scene kid left

Yeah this one's for the kids who'd always doubt me
You wanna be nice now, huh
You're so nice now, huh
To all my fuckin' friends who never knew me
You wanna be nice now, huh
You're so nice now, huh
Used to laugh with your friends everyday
Now you can't get away from my name
Yeah this one's for the kids who would abuse me
You wanna be nice now, huh
You're so nice now, huh

Maybe they all shoulda thought who they were sleeping on Cuz now they sending friend requests to pages I don't run
Like look "what you accomplished", "Yeah man look how far you've come"
I say crazy that you waited until 2021

Maybe they all shoulda thought who they were sleeping on
